New Mexico School for the Deaf is an Equal Opportunity Employer/Affirmative Action Employer.

Posting Date: September 6, 2017

Position Title: Tutor - ASL Service Corps

Reports to: Director of Statewide Educational Consultation and Training

Service Area: Farmington, NM

Employment Term: Full-time, 10 month position

Salary/Wage Range: $25,240

Deadline for Application: Open until filled

Summary

NMSD is seeking individuals who are native users of ASL, have direct experience with Deaf Culture and have completed a bachelor's degree or associate's degree. Experience teaching ASL would be preferred, but not required. Applicants should have a passion for ASL and those who wish to learn it. This service position requires staff to live in rural locations in New Mexico, so flexibility in living environments is a must. Individuals should have strong communication skills in both ASL and English, organizational skills and a desire to make a difference in the lives of deaf children. Applicants should be able to adapt to new environments and embrace new experiences. This is a service-based program that includes a ten month commitment and a great deal of regional travel. ASL Service Corps Tutors are required to have their own registered and insured vehicle and will be reimbursed for mileage and approved travel costs.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities (Other duties may be assigned)

- Work closely with the ASL Service Corps Manager and other NMSD staff to provide American Sign Language instruction in rural locations statewide.
- Teach ASL in the homes of families and in public schools.
- Plan and implement structured lessons and track the progress of program participants' ASL growth.
- Participate in pre-service orientation and training specific to service delivery as required by NMSD.
- Coordinate, facilitate and/or participate in community and department events as required and requested.
- Provide high-standard ASL instruction with educational staff, family members and community members.
- Maintain program documentation and timely paperwork.
- Collaborate with a variety of colleagues, families, school staff, administrators and supervisor regarding program planning and development.
